

Sir:

Please do nothing that would weaken the Indiana right to telephone privacy law. Before the law was passed, we were pestered constantly by telemarketers. Now, we can have a little peace and quiet when home in the evening. Please don't change that. Thanks, David L. Elwood